Our trees

Linden trees line the drive. Planted as a butterfly attractant
Black walnut trees - planted for veneer harvest, furniture, walnuts & habitat
Pecan tree - nuts
Lodi apple trees - planted for their exceptional applesauce & pies
Red Delicious apple trees - eating
Jonathan apples - planted for cider, cakes, pies
Bartlett pears - an eating & baking pear
Bosc pear - planted for baking/cooking
Hickory - furniture
Hackberry - steam bending, berries for wildlife
Wild Plum - jam
Silver Maple - planted for veneer harvest, furniture
Pin oak - fuel wood, shade tree (quick growing)
Flowering crabapple - ornamental & bird habitat
American elm - furniture & shade
Honey locust - the best firewood, furniture
Hedge trees - fence posts, firewood
Mulberry trees - jam
Eastern Red Cedar- wildlife plantings/shelterbelts, furniture
Cottonwood - wildlife habitat